

Family Prayer

Lord have mercy on us
Save us from our sins
Redeem us from the desires
Of greed, envy, fear and
Disobedience to you.

Give us instead, time, time
And more time together
To laugh and love, to spend joy and
The wealth of togetherness here on earth
As we await our eternal time together
In heaven with you!

Family Time...Jesus is waiting for us to spend time
With him.

Rain Down On Me

An Outpouring of Grace

St. Peter Claver Church ~ April 15, 2010

Father Patrick Smith is a sought after speaker, preacher, revivalist, and retreat director for both youth and adults. He serves as a regularly featured priest on the Sunday morning Archdiocesan Mass for Shut-ins. Since his ordination, Father has been called upon by the Archdiocesan Offices of Evangelization, Youth Ministry, Young Adult Ministry, and Vocations; by the Pro-Life Office; and by the Offices of Black Catholics and of Adult Religious Formation. Most recently, he participated in the Eucharistic Congress as both a workshop leader and a speaker at the outdoor Youth Rally.

Father Smith was born in the District of Columbia as the sixth of eight children. He attended local Catholic schools from his elementary years through high school. After graduating from Mackin High School, he attended Mount Saint Mary's College in Emmitsburg, Maryland, majoring in Theology and first discerning his calling to priestly ministry. Fr. Smith was blessed with the opportunity to continue his education at the North American College in Rome, Italy, where he earned both a B.A. in Sacred Theology and a License in Sacred Theology. In 1990 he was ordained to the priesthood at St. Matthews Cathedral in Washington DC. Following his ordination, Fr. Smith was assigned as Associate Pastor to Our Lady of Sorrows church in Takoma Park, Maryland. Only fifteen months later he was asked to assume full pastoral responsibility for St. Peter Claver.

In 1996, during his tenure in Southern Maryland, Fr. Smith was chosen to be one of two priests featured in a nationally televised documentary on the life of Catholic Priests, Answering God's Call: An Experience of the Priesthood. The ABC documentary aired in 1997, one month prior to Fr. Smith's reassignment to the parish of St. Teresa of Avila. Fr. Pat Smith is currently Pastor of St. Augustine parish in Washington, DC.
